Candidates Will Speak In Randolph

Candidates for offices in the Randolph election March 6 will speak at the Lyons School auditorium Wednesday at 8 p.m.

In addition, there will be a debate on the referendum question of whether to retain or revoke the town manager government.

TO STATECASE FOR FIREFIGHTERS

And a representative of the Fire Dept. will speak in favor of the pay raise being sought by referendum by firefighters.

The candidates' night will be co-sponsored by the Randolph Civic Improvement Assn. and the Junior Ladies Library Assn.

Candidates for selectmen are incumbents Ralph N. Hutchinson, Charles A. Foley, James Moriarty, Norman A. Silk, George Laun and former Selectman Theodore V. Luddington.

School Committee aspirants are incumbent and Chairman Raymond P. McGerrigle, Mrs. Dorothy W. Sullivan, Mrs. George H. Cormey and Alvin Yorra.

CONTEST FOR TWO SEATS

They will battle for two School Committee seats.

The fight for town moderator is between incumbent William J. Carr and Joseph a. Lombardi.

Each candidate will talk, and a question and answer period will follow.

The referendum debate will be between two selectmen, Chairman George F. Cullen and Semensi.

Cullen favors the town manager system and Semensi is a long-time foe of the system.

Atty. Robert Schneider, a member of the CIA, will preside as moderator.
